

HELLO EVERYONE!

First chronicle after almost two months of our arrival in Fourvière.

We did not arrive on the same day. Sofia arrived before her companions. She left for Lyon on Saturday, 9 September accompanied by some sisters from Spain. On Sunday, they took a brief stroll through the Old Lyon and the Presqu'île, joined by Nuria Cuadras, who had been there for a few days.

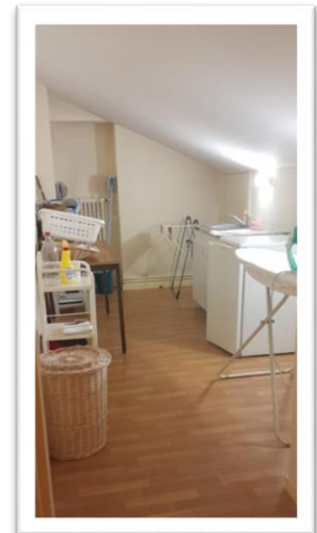

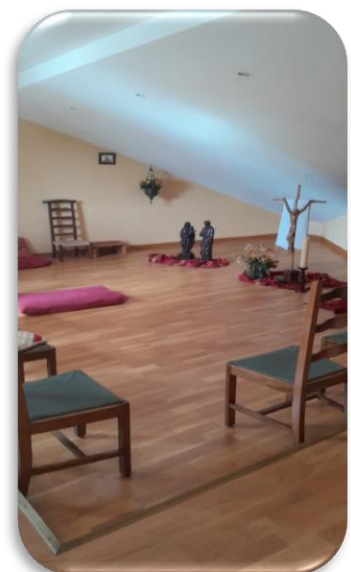

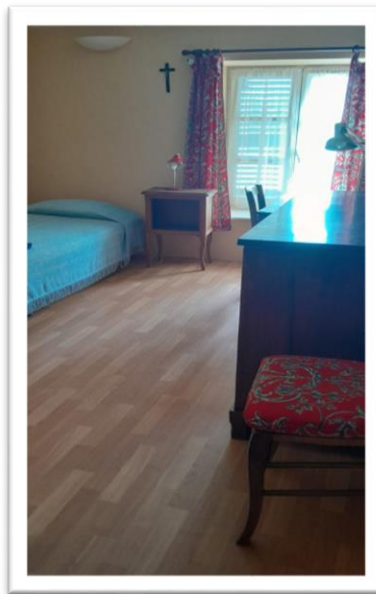

Additionally, it provided an opportunity to celebrate Sister Marie Dominique's 70 years of religious profession, and the anniversary of the Congregation's Foundation. A well prepared prayer took place on the night of October 5 to 6, in the company of seven young people from Fourvière.

Anticipating the arrival of Marie Prudence and Jeanne Martine, it was an opportune moment to initiate the first contacts with the community, the residence, Foyer, the garden, and the basilica. We also undertook the task of reviewing the library, compiling the initial list of requirements, and preparing the rooms.

The Basilica of Fourvière hosted the Mission Congress from September 29 to October 1. Religious men and women, along with many laypeople engaged in the pastoral care of their parishes from all over France, came to participate. A group of sisters stayed at L'Angélique. In our chapel, the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament was conducted one afternoon, specifically scheduled for all the priests who attended the Congress.

After a period of less actions, activity at Angélique begins again. It must be said that everything in the house has been very well preserved and cared for! Look at the pictures! Better come and see!!

Jeanne Martine and Marie Prudence faced challenges in obtaining their visas, but eventually, on October 10, they arrived after a long journey from Libreville to Paris and then to Lyon. The day before their arrival, Luz Guede had already come. In this manner, the four of us, constituting the small project group, proceeded to present the Angélique Project to Notre Dame de Fourvière in its petite chapel. During these initial days, we gathered, prayed together, shared our desires regarding our presence in Fourvière and the city, and initiated contact with various individuals who would guide us in our participation in pastoral activities. The following day, we convened with lay persons, Elena and Jocelyne to discuss each person's role in achieving the objectives of the project.

And with this, the first chronicle concludes.

We have more to share. Join us next time!

United in Jesus and Mary,

Jeanne Martine, Marie Prudence, Sofia
